Eggs are exceedingly scarce and consequently high in price, while chickens of the frying or broiling size are even more difficult to obtain here. It would surely pay someone to raise poultry and eggs for the local market.

A fine girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. David Young at their ranch home in Hidalgo county last week. This accounts for the proud and happy smile which illumines the face of Grandfather John J. Young, who is in town on a short visit.

A small twig from an orange tree bearing five well developed oranges was handed the editor today by Foreman Shannon of THE HERALD, who got it from an orange tree growing in his yard. Mr. Shannon says the entire tree is equally as heavily laden with fruit, and the limbs have to be propped up to prevent the weight of the fruit from breaking them down.

The next homeseeker's excursion started from Chicago and Kansas city today and will begin to arrive at Brownsville Friday. It is probably not an exaggeration to estimate the number of homeseekers who came in during the last excursion, and who seem to be still coming, at fully seven hundreds or more. And it is expected that equally as many will come on this week's excursion.

The car loads of sorghum from the Piper Bros.' plantation were shipped by the Brownsville Grain Co. today to Corpus Christi, and two more cars from the same plantation were loaded by the company today for shipment to the same point. This company has already shipped about a dozen car loads of sorghum to various points in South Texas this fall, some of it going to Laredo. This sorghum has nearly all come from the Piper plantation, there being about three cars from the Lewis Bros.' plantation at Santa Maria. About four thousand bushels of corn from the Brownsville vicinity have also been shipped by the Brownsville Grain company this fall.

Sproule, Jasper, Ala.; Samuel Hughes and wife, La Gloria, Cameron Co., Texas; J. H. Page and wife, Bloomington, Texas; Floss Page and Harriett Adair, North Salem, Ind.; F. J. Adams, Ohio; Wm. G. Schulz, Napoleon, Ore.; C. N. Hildebrand, Chicago; E. C. Pease, Des Moines, Ia.; T. W. Rolland, Pittsburg, Pa.; Ned Nelson, Lowell, Ind.; B. F. Boxley, Birmingham, Ala.; R. L. Timmons, Corpus Christi, Texas; T. H. Price, Columbia, Mo.; and Geo. R. Rhen, Point Isabel, Texas; are recent arrivals at the Riverside hotel.

In reporting the departures for Point Isabel the other day, THE HERALD noted that of George Stowe, as returning to his post of duty on Padre Island. It appears that the "new man" on THE HERALD overlooked the fact that Mr. Stowe had resigned his position at the lighthouse some time ago, having accepted a place with the Frontier Lumber Company of Brownsville instead. He says he had gotten enough of the water to do him. His trip to the Point Sunday was merely to enjoy a day's hunting in that vicinity. The light on Padre Island is now in charge of Wm. Egly of Point Isabel, who was formerly Mr. Stowe's assistant.

Two fine mules were killed on Lon C. Hill's place at Harlingen recently by jack-hunters, who mistook the mules, eyes for those of a deer, while indulging in that unlawful and wholly reprehensible practice of hunting deer with jack-lights. A colt belonging to T. L. Jones of Harlingen is also reported to have been sacrificed by the same methods recently. Is it not about time for the leading ranch owners and stockmen, as well as all other law-abiding citizens, to join in a vigorous effort to check the depredations of the deer hunters in this section?

A hunting party that left today for the Arroyo district, carrying heavy ammunition and camping supplies galore, comprised Collector of Customs Vann, H. H. Weller, Conductor Jacobs, C. W. Cook and Joe Hollis. They will doubtless do great execution among the deer and other game in that vicinity.

The dramatic company that arrived Saturday night left today, having given only one performance while here, which took place Sunday night. The company stretched its tent in Washington Park, and doubtless intended to play the full engagement for three nights, but the rain and mud proved too much for them.

A suggestion has been made by Rev. Dr. L. R. Burrell, of the Baptist Church that a union Thanksgiving service be held by the local churches, for which he says the Baptist Church will be gladly opened. The idea is a good one, and no doubt will be adopted by the various churches.

Fine rains have fallen in Hidalgo county recently, so THE HERALD learns from Peter S. Champion, the well known ranchman of that county, who was here on a visit yesterday. Mr. Champion says the rains have been of immense benefit to the entire county.

The weather clerk promises a norther for tomorrow. Anything will be a relief from the cloudy and rainy weather of the past week, which has made our land of sunshine seem so unlike itself.
